Rock 'n' Roll: Bringing Back the 50's

The 50's themed Middle school Homecoming Luncheon was a great success! There was even a surprise guest, the Chick-Fil-A cow! Everyone seemed to enjoy the music, 50's trivia questions, and the yummy food!

Taylor Riggs and Andrew Grimm won the vote for Best 50's Style, Vanesa Harper and Ben Lohr won the vote for Best Dressed, Alexa Crider and Billy Lohr won the vote for Best Hair, and DeAundre' Gonzalez won the vote for Best Spirit of the 50's.

Mrs. Lohr did an amazing job of planning this fun event for the middle school students.

The Broadfording Pep Club brought back the 50's at our very own Homecoming high school dinner. It was held on Friday, November 19th in the BCA cafeteria.

The cafeteria was transformed. Images of records, Elvis, and a classic diner set-up graced the walls. Authentic records dangled from the ceiling. A jukebox, cardboard but nonetheless ornate, sat in the corner. A special guest arrived on scene minutes after the dinner started. Elvis Presley, alive and well, danced down the steps and into the presence of all in attendance. Mr. Burkett, past principal of BCA, was quite a delight.

The food was delicious, ranging from root beer floats to Chick-Fil-A sandwiches, even baked mac n' cheese bites.

During the evening, the people were allowed to vote for several categories of "Bests." The winners include Kelsey Burkhardt and Joshua Hurd for "Best 50's Style," and a tie for "Best Dress" between Anne Hunt and Maria Pifer. Also, Matt South was the winner of "Best Dressed." Jessica Kelbaugh and guest Killian Baker took the title "Best Hair."

Alumni Joey Bakner volunteered his time and antique car to take pictures for the students. These pictures will be on sale shortly. If you are interested, please contact the office.

The night ended with laughter as groups crowded around the balloon arch for more pictures. It was a wonderful evening.

A special thanks to all staff and students who helped as well as participated!

AMBASSADORS

The Ambassadors are planning on singing this year at the Dessert Theater. We are working on many different many different Christmas songs. Every Friday we randomly pick a staff member to sing to. After picking, we go to the staff member's room or office and walk in screaming and cheering "It's Your Day!" We do this to be a blessing to BCA and everyone who is here. The Ambassadors are made up of twelfth graders Andrew Wyand, Pete Craddock, Ariana Litten, and Kristin Hixon, eleventh graders Ashley Burkett, Jessica Kelbaugh, Anne Hunt, and Maria Pifer, tenth graders Trevor Snodderly and Evan Usher, and ninth grader Emily Underberg.

I asked some Ambassadors what they thought of choir and here is what they said: Ashley Burkett-"I love choir! Miss Smith is the best director ever!"

Jessica Kelbaugh-"I like choir! Miss Smith makes amazing food! We always have a lot fun and a great time! I am known as the "needy one" because I always have to be between Maria and Kristin when singing. I hate (being on) the end!"

Evan Usher-"Choir is crazy.

We have a great time together!" Trevor Snodderly-"Choir is a lot of fun. I love being able to share the Gospel through our singing!"

The Ambassadors is a great class to be in. We always enjoy being with each other and we not only bless others, but The Ambassadors are a blessing to each person that is in it. It will always cheer you up when you are sad. It really is an amazing place and group to be in!

PTF Christmas Shop

On Thursday December 2 BCA held a Christmas shop. All of the grades came to shop and enjoy the festivities. High school pep club students helped the younger students to shop for they're families as well as rap gifts. It was a great way to get into the Christmas spirit.

"Pirates > Ninjas Always."
-Rebecca Redding

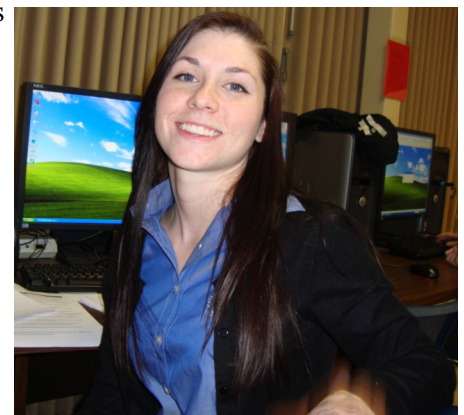

Mrs. Redding is a middle school teacher and has the 9th grade as her homeroom. This is her first year teaching full time. She first started working at BCA under the home school program, which led her to want to teach full time. When I asked her, "What is your favorite class to teach?" she said 7th grade English and newspaper.

Mrs. Redding's husband's name is Jeremy or as she likes to call him, "Prince Charming." They have been married for a year and a half. She has a "very spoiled" black and white cat named Trillian, after a character from the book "Hitchhikers Guide to the Galaxy."

Mrs. Redding likes the TV shows "Bones" and "The Fresh Prince of Bel Air" and says that if she could live in any time in recent history it would be the 1950's. Her favorite days of the week are Saturday and Monday. As we finished up her interview, she said one of her favorite things about being part of BCA staff is that they are all Christ-centered and "everyone wants to work together to make each students succeed as a person, not just academically."

Ask Leo

By Leo the Lion

Do you have a question you want answered? Has another student told you about a BCA rule you never knew about and you want to know the truth? Do you have a friend in trouble and you don't know how to help them?

Well here's your chance! You all know me as Leo the Lion, mascot for BCA. But today I'm here to tell you about another way I'm helping out at school.

In this year's brand new column for Lion's Roar, you'll ask the questions, I'll answer them!

Just email your questions to: askleobcanews@gmail.com and I'll do my best to answer your question in the next issue. I look forward to reading all your questions!
